

Plans for the 90th Annual ISPA Conference are wrapping up. Local #5 Cedar Rapids is working hard to create an exceptional conference you will not want to miss. You can see the schedule for Monday's golf, as well as Monday and Tuesday evening events, along with the conference agenda on the website.

Monday evening make sure to get in on the bags tournament in the Bud Light Lounge after stuffing yourself with some delicious BBQ. No need to register for the bags tournament just show up. Monday night you can also enjoy Sugar and Spice, no its not more food. This Cedar Rapids music duo will be performing letting people decide what they want to hear. Generally, their music ranges from the 70s to present day.

This year we will see multiple educational programs. On Tuesday, Family Man to Family Annihilator-The Chris Watts Case Study presented by FBI S/A Graham Coder and CBI Agent Tammy Lee. Wednesday's education will be Ferguson Effect presented by Ferguson Police Department Retired Chief Tom Jackson and The Michelle Martinko Case Study presented by Cedar Rapids Police Department Investigator Matt Denlinger.

Wednesday will close out with our annual business meeting and election of officers. If you are interested in running for a board position, please do not hesitate to reach out to any board member or past president for their perspective.

Your local should have already received conference registration information. If you did not, contact Ryan Goecke or David McFarland at ispaonline@gmail.com or 515-299-5320. Registering in advance ensures a spot for you at all events. You can pick up your meal tickets and ID badges on Monday between 2:00-4:00 pm and Tuesday between 7:30-8:30 am. Please remember we do not hand out binders at the conference. You can download the conference materials from the website or you can pick up copies from a table in the back of the conference meeting room.

Please visit the Annual Conference page on the ISPA website for more information.
