

Captain Quinn promoted to Chief.

Chief Dennis Quinn began his career with the Fort Dodge Police Department in 2008. He served as a patrol officer, DRE, Special Emergency Response Team (SERT) member and team leader. Promoted to the rank of sergeant in 2015. His assignments while a sergeant included patrol and SERT team leader. Promoted to the rank of lieutenant in 2017. His assignments while a lieutenant included patrol and then assigned to criminal investigations division as well as continuing as a SERT team leader. Promoted to the rank of captain in 2020. His assignments while a captain included overseeing criminal investigations and SERT team commander. In his 14+ year career he has served in many different roles within the department, has been actively involved in community policing, and has been an instructor in many different disciplines.

Sergeant Hanson promoted to Captain.

Captain Steve Hanson began his career with the Fort Dodge Police Department in 2006. He served as a patrol officer, field training officer, and Special Emergency Response Team member (SERT). In 2008 he was assigned to the position of narcotics investigator. In 2013 he was assigned to the position of general crimes investigator. Promoted to the rank of sergeant in 2014. His assignments as sergeant included patrol for 7 years and criminal investigations for 2 years. As Captain he will be overseeing the criminal investigations division. In Captain Hanson's 17+ year career, he has been an instructor in many different law enforcement related fields and is a past president of the Iowa State Police Association.

Officer Webb promoted to Sergeant.

Sergeant Matt Webb began his career with the Fort Dodge Police Department in 2008. He served as a patrol officer, field training officer, and school resource officer. While assigned as an SRO he worked under the direction of the criminal investigations division therefore assisted in varying criminal investigations. While serving as an SRO he also filled the role of a community resource officer, which included many public speaking engagements, as well as presentation and implementation of neighborhood watch groups throughout the community. Sergeant Webb is also a Below 100 instructor. As sergeant he will be assigned to patrol as a day shift supervisor.