Iowa State Police Association
91st General Assembly, 2025 Session
Week Eleven: March 28, 2025
Fitzgerald, Smith & Associates, Lobbyists

The Legislature was active this week as both chambers worked to progress bills before the second funnel deadline next Thursday. As with most years, tracking all the bills and the various amendments can be quite a task. Some bills have a straightforward path and are moved through each chamber's floor with nearly unanimous support. Others take more time fine-tuning the legislation with amendments and gathering votes for support. This process is taking place in both chambers and across the rotunda to ensure legislative members that the bill will not only pass the chamber of origin but also have support in the opposite chamber and ultimately reach the Governor's desk. It is expected that the outcome of many bills will not be decided until the final days of next week.

We did see some legislative activity on our registered bills this week as well as productive conversations behind the scenes. We will provide a full second funnel deadline update in next week's newsletter.
